Steamship Otta Due From San Francisco Today.

ROANOKE ARRIVES TOMORROW

Alliance Due Here This Morning—Georgina Does to Sea—Johan Poulsen Arrives—Kitsap Due Down This Week on Trial Trip.

The brand new steamer Kitsap just about finished at the Supply yards in Portland, will leave there sometime during the coming week for her trial trip to Puget Sound. Chief Engineer Rober, of the Major Guy Howard, purchased her engines in the East last year, and will act as supervising engineer during her trial. She is said to be a fine and fast boat.

W. R. Hume reports that word has been received from New York announcing the safe arrival there of the American ship M. P. Grace, 130 days out from Puget Sound. The Tongue Point people could not load here so sent her to the Sound and cargoed her there with a couple of million feet.

It is announced from San Francisco that the British steamer Sutherland has arrived there from Manila with 147,820 bags of sugar for a local refinery. There were 10,584,000 pound and the sum of $145,000 duty was paid in gold. The sugar came from Iloilo.

The steamer Telegraph arrived down yesterday afternoon with 34 people who were glad to get away from the metropolis and its slathering heat. She went up on time, with a good list of freight and passengers.

The steamer Johan Poulsen, from San Francisco, was the first arrival over the Columbia bar yesterday morning. She went directly on to Portland.

The barkentine Georgina went to sea and San Francisco, yesterday afternoon, with a cargo of 1,205,000 feet of lumber.

The steamer Alliance left Portland yesterday evening, and will be at the Callender pier this morning early, en route to Eureka and Coos Bay points.

The motor schooner Berwick left Portland last evening and should pass out this morning on her way to the California coast.

The steamship Otta left San Francisco on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock for this port and should be in this evening or early tomorrow morning.

Second Engineer Will H. Rober of the big Hill liner, Minnesota, is now at Seattle with his ship, and reports himself well and happy.

The Lurline is making her old schedule and got away last night on time with H. S. Hazen and D. S. Rawson on her passenger list.

The steamship Roanoke is due in this port tomorrow morning, from Los Angeles, San Francisco and Eureka.

WEEK AT THE BEACH RESORTS

LONG BEACH ITEMS.

Mrs. E. E. Lytle, daughter Helen and son Harry are registered at the Breakers for the Summer. Mrs. Lytle has been slightly indisposed from her over-strenuous life in the city, but will surely be refreshed in a few days by the rest and the ocean air.

Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd is in the William McKensie cottage at the Willows for the Summer.

Harold Reid, Dudley Clark and Bob Nelson are on the seining grounds at Sand Island and expect to remain there through August.

Miss Flora Fleischer, who has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Lipman in their cottage near the Breakers, went to Portland Wednesday and later will be the guest of Mrs. I. N. Fleischer at Seaside.

Among those in cottages at Sea View are: Charles L. Mastick and family, C. C. Marton and family of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Elliot, of Walla Walla.

Early in the week a party from the Wickham, including most of the guests at the hotel, was driven over to North Head light and Fort Canby, where they lunched and spent the day.

The skating rink at Long Beach has been crowded every night since the opening last week, which testifies to the popularity of this healthful sport.

Among those who have opened their cottages at Ocean Park are Judge L. B. Stearns, E. H. Hagihorst, A. M. Smith, E. N. Wheeler, J. C. Roberts, O. L. McPherson, S. A. Matthews, B. F. Clayton, Jack Bean, O. W. Gray and Frank Palmer.

Mrs. C. A. Richards has taken Honolulu cottage at Sea View for the Summer.

The musicale at Hackney cottage Tuesday evening was one of the enjoyable events of the week. E. C. Davis, of Spokane, sang two songs of d'Hardelot's, "Because," and "I Think," and his wife played his accompaniments, as well as several solo numbers. Miss Rose Shaact played also and Miss Tudye Shaact sang, very much to the delight of those fortunate enough to be present.

H. E. Grey, who comes from St. Paul, every Summer to Hackney's cottage, is in Portland for a few days, but will return soon, bringing two sisters with him.

Captain Robertson has purchased the Erickson house at Shelburne.

Mrs. Walter Struble and family are in their cottage at the Willows.

Mrs. W. C. Noon and daughters are in their cottage at Tioga.

A course of lectures and musicales, to be given at Round Hall, Long Beach, on Sunday afternoons during the Summer, has been somewhat indefinitely arranged for. Rev. Mr. Snyder, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Vancouver, Wash., will conduct the services.

Stuart McGuire is at the beach for a week or ten days renovating the McGuire house at Centerville.

The family of Dr. R. S. Gillespie is in their house at Centerville.

Florence and Mildred Walrath are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Alby at the Willows.

Seaside.

One of the best places the sightseers hunt is the Salt Carron—a short distance to the south of Seaside. From the description in the diary kept by Lewis and Clark, it is supposed that this is the place where these first valiant champions of the West stopped to get salt from the ocean as an addition to their nearly exhausted supplies. There is practically nothing to see but a number of rocks, piled in circular form, and a fence of logs, but the place, nevertheless, holds a great fascination because of its supposed associations.

There are probably more new cottages this season than ever before, and the town is building up so rapidly that lots which a few years ago were to be had for a song are now selling for them $800 to $1000. The West Side, as well as the East, is now duly incorporated, and at the last meeting of the Council extensive plans were made for a complete water and sewer system; the streets are to be straightened out, and all manner of improvements made.

The house which is just being finished for W. D. Fenton is to be one of the most attractive Summer houses on the beach. It is in the southwest corner of Hermosa Park, and commands a splendid view of the entire beach, the Old Man of the Mountain and Tillamook Head. The house, of course, is electric lighted, with hot and cold water, etc., but what makes it most unique and artistic is the frieze of hand-painted oils, copied from Remington's "Hiawatha," illustrations by Ralph Fenton, and which is to be used in the oak-stained living-room. The paintings are excellently done and the predominance of the characteristic Remington browns and reds make them in perfect harmony with the finish of the room.

Personals.

Mr. I. N. Fleischer spent last week with his family in their attractive house at Seaside; he will probably be down again for the week-end soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Van Schuyver and son spent a few days at Moore's Hotel last week, and are expected down later for the Summer.

Mrs. Ed Cockingham and son, Holt, are occupying the Weber cottage, in Hermosa Park.

Mortimer Fauch of Portland is at Bearhart, superintending the building of the new "Boyle's Alley" there.

Among Mrs. I. Lovengart's guests for the week at Seaside are her mother, Mr. I. Gerst, Miss Amy May, Mrs. F. Reineman and Miss Judith Lovengart.

Senator Fulton of Astoria, his wife and several guests are occupying their house at Seaside for a few days.

Elaborate preparations are under way for the entertainment of the Arion Singing Society, which will be at Locksley Hall three days in August. The members of the society are planning a concert and dance, and Mr. H. T. Butterworth, proprietor of the hall, will give in their honor a banquet and clambake.

Bob Lewis and family are occupying the Fullum house at Seaside.

J. C. Carson and daughter Elizabeth are visiting J. G. Mack and wife at Seaside.

Mrs. W. A. Knight of Portland, her daughter and maid, are at Kruse's Beach Hotel for the season.

Among those who were at Seaside over Sunday were Chester Murphy, Arnold Rothwell, Robert McCracken and Jordan Zan.

Mr. E. Lyons of Portland and J. McGuire of Astoria were at Moore's Hotel a few days last week.

Harvey W. Scott has purchased the Kraemer house at Seaside.

Miss Eggleston, a very fine pianist, of Boise, Idaho, and a pupil of Bauer's in Paris, is at Gearhart.

Mr. and Mrs. Howe are in Kinkkio Lodge for the season.

BIGGEST HOUSE YET AT THE STAR

WILLARD COMPANY PRODUCES "A GAY DECEIVER" LAST NIGHT TO LARGEST HOUSE—AUDIENCE WAS MORE THAN PLEASED.

The Willard Company who have been playing throughout the past week at the Star Theatre, have in every respect, been charmed with the business and the appreciative audience that have greeted them to witness the production of "A Western Gentleman," and "A Gay Deceiver," even in the face of the fact that Astoria has passed through the hottest spell that has visited us for many years. Both Mr. Willard and his manager, Mr. Fox, wish to thank the theatre-goers of Astoria through the medium of the press, and to express their hearty appreciation.

It will be the continual effort of the Willard Company to produce good plays and productions during their stay in Astoria.

On Monday evening the famous play, "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," will be produced with special light effects and scenery. This most wonderful play calls for the greatest talent, as but few can carry the remarkably heavy part of "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." Mr. Willard in this part excels, for his capabilities are beyond adverse criticism. Those who have never witnessed the classic can not afford to lose this opportunity for Mr. Willard has but few equals. This afternoon, "A Western Gentleman" will be produced for the benefit of those who have not had the chance to see it during the fore part of the week.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Mable Powell is home for a short visit, from Lake Forest, Ill., where she has been for the past few years.

Hon. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop of Portland and Salem passed through the city yesterday en route to Seaside. On their return, they will take steamer for Alaska, to enjoy the famous summer trip in those latitudes.

R. B. Lundy, of Colorado, is visiting in Astoria and will return to his home in a few days.

W. D. B. Dobson came down from Portland yesterday and will sojourn here with friends for a week or ten days.

Ex-Governor T. T. Geer was a visitor in Astoria yesterday returning to the Capital City on last night's express.

C. J. Schwold of Portland, was in Astoria yesterday domiciled at the Occident.

Allen M. Ellsworth spent the day in Astoria yesterday.

H. A. Forbes of San Francisco spent the day here yesterday on business bent. W. P. Fisher of Seattle was among the business visitors in Astoria yesterday.

Miss Emma Ausmus of Portland, has been visiting Mrs. H. C. Harrison. Miss Ausmus will return to Portland this evening.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Wright and family wish to express their most sincere thanks and appreciation to the kind friends who have aided and sympathized with them in their late bereavement.

ARE YOU A BON VIVANT?

The pith of life, after all, is a good feed. The good things of this life are not as a rule easily found, so that it is a pleasure to find so close at hand a first-class up-to-date establishment, where one gets those good things at every meal, like the Palace Restaurant, on Commercial street. The home of the bon vivant.
